FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
18 U.S.C. § 1347, 2(b) HEALTH CARE FRAUD AND CAUSING AN ACT TO BE DONE as charged in the First Superseding Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Thirty-seven (37) months.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $6,335,949 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

A partial payment of $10,000 shall be paid immediately. Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

For the restitution ordered in this judgment, Dr. Emmanuel Adebayo Ayodele shall be held jointly and severally liable with his co-participants, to the extent and for the amount that each is determined liable for the same victim losses. Said co-participants are as follows: Charles Achike Agbu; Obiageli Brooke Agbu; Dr. Juan Tomas Van Putten; Alejandro Maciel; and Candalaria Corral Estrada (all in Docket No. CR-11-00134-GW).

The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and Dr. Emmanuel Adebayo Ayodele's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The court has found that the property identified in the preliminary order of forfeiture is subject to forfeiture. The preliminary order is incorporated by reference to this judgment and is final as to the defendant.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Dr. Emmanuel Adebayo Ayodele, is hereby committed on Count 12 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 37 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
4. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing or certification by any local, state or federal agency without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving federally funded health insurance or entitlement programs without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer prior to engaging in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall notify any state medical boards in which he is a licensed physician, including the Medical Board of California, in writing, of his conviction and sentence within 30 days of this judgment.
7. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on November 15, 2013. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the United States Marshal located at the Royal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012. The bond is exonerated upon surrender.

The Government's request to dismiss the remaining counts of the underlying Indictment and the First Superseding Indictment is granted.

The Court advises defendant of his rights to an appeal. The Court recommends, but does not order, that defendant serve his term at a federal facility in Southern California.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
